Collect

O God, you have prepared for those who love you such good things as surpass our understanding: Pour into our hearts such love towards you, that we, loving you in all things and above all things, may obtain your promises, which exceed all that we can desire; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Lesson - Acts 10:44-48

While Peter was still speaking, the Holy Spirit fell upon all who heard the word. The circumcised believers who had come with Peter were astounded that the gift of the Holy Spirit had been poured out even on the Gentiles, for they heard them speaking in tongues and extolling God. Then Peter said, "Can anyone withhold the water for baptizing these people who have received the Holy Spirit just as we have?" So he ordered them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they invited him to stay for several days.

The Second Lesson - 1 John 5:1-6

Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born of God, and everyone who loves the parent loves the child. By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. For the love of God is this, that we obey his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome, for whatever is born of God conquers the world. And this is the victory that conquers the world, our faith. Who is it that conquers the world but the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God?

This is the one who came by water and blood, Jesus Christ, not with the water only but with the water and the blood. And the Spirit is the one that testifies, for the Spirit is the truth.

The Gospel - John 15:9-17

Jesus said to his disciples, "As the Father has loved me, so I have loved you; abide in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. I have said these things to you so that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be complete.

"This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. I do not call you servants any longer, because the servant does not know what the master is doing; but I have called you friends, because I have made known to you everything that I have heard from my Father. You did not choose me but I chose you. And I appointed you to go and bear fruit, fruit that will last, so that the Father will give you whatever you ask him in my name. I am giving you these commands so that you may love one another."

Spotlight on Today's Holy Scripture:

Acts 10: 44-48

This missionary speech in today's reading marks an important turning point in the outreach of the early Church. Many Jewish Christians feared and resisted the possible inclusion of Gentiles. However, St. Luke makes clear that Peter himself (even before St. Paul) began the mission to the Gentiles under the direction of the Holy Spirit. Cornelius was a "God-fearing" Roman, one who worshipped God but had not adopted all of the Jewish religious practices. Cornelius receives the sacrament of baptism, but not before he and his gathered household received the gift of the Holy Spirit. This event marks a new Pentecost. The circle of Christian faith has now broadened to include the inhabitants of "the ends of the earth" (1: 8). The Spirit first came to Jews (2: 1-4), then to the despised Samaritans (8: 14-17), and now to the Gentiles.

Psalm 98

This Psalm is closely related to Psalm 96. Its original setting may have been the enthronement festival of Yahweh. It is celebrated each year at the New Year's feast of Tabernacles. In later times the psalm was interpreted to herald the Lord's final coming. It presents the Lord, in faithfulness to the covenant, acting in history for the salvation of God's people.

1 John 5: 1-6

The writing of 1 John seems to have been motivated by a schism in the community due to heresy, specifically the denial of Jesus' humanity. The central theme of 1 John is that "God is love" (4:8). The significance of this statement is explored through repeated meditation that interweaves theology and ethics. Those who make the early baptismal confession, "Jesus is the Christ," have assented to a pattern for their behavior. As God's children, Christians are to love God and one another and to obey the commandments. Through trust in Jesus, the Christian may overcome the world.

John 15: 9-17

Today's gospel reading from the discourse on the vine and the branches deals with the disciples' relationships with one another. Jesus' relationship with the Father has now become the model for all believers. The Father and the Son's relationship of mutual indwelling is now extended to Christians. The Father's love for the Son is the basis, both in origin and in quality, of the Son's love for the believer. Believers are to love one another with a love characterized by self-sacrifice. So, while Christians are still "servants" (v. 15, literally "slaves") of Christ in terms of ministry, they are "friends" (v. 15) of Christ in terms of intimacy with God. In and through this relationship Christians are appointed to "bear fruit" (v.16).

Enough - Communion

All of You is more than enough for all of me
For every thirst and every need
You satisfy me with Your love
And all I have in You is more than enough

You are my supply
My breath of life
And still more awesome than I know
You are my reward worth living for
And still more awesome than I know

All of You is more than enough for all of

For every thirst and every need
You satisfy me with Your love
And all I have in You is more than enough

You're my sacrifice
Of greatest price
And still more awesome than I know
You're the coming King
You are everything
And still more awesome than I know

More than all I want
More than all I need

May the Road - Communion

May the road rise with you
May the wind be always at your back
May the sun shine warm upon your face

May the rain fall soft upon your fields
And until we meet again
May God hold you

Put a Little Love in Your Heart - Closing Song

Think of your fellow man
Lend him a helping hand
Put a little love in your heart
You see it's getting late
Oh, please don't hesitate
Put a little love in your heart

And the world will be a better place
And the world will be a better place
For you and me
You just wait and see

Another day goes by Still the children cry
Put a little love in your heart
If you want the world to know
We won't let hatred grow
Put a little love in your heart

And the world (and the world) will be a better place
All the world (and the world) will be a better place
For you (for you) and me (and me)
You just wait (just wait) and see, wait and see

Take a good look around
And if you're looking down
Put a little love in your heart
I hope when you decide
Kindness will be your guide
Put a little love in your heart

And the world (and the world) will be a better place
And the world (and the world) will be a better place
For you (for you) and me (and me)
You just wait (just wait) and see

People, now put a little love in your heart
Each and every day
Put a little love in your heart
There's no other way
Put a little love in your heart
It's up to you
Put a little love in your heart
C'mon and put a little love in your heart
You've got to put a little love in your heart

Always Only Jesus - Prelude

There's no greater love than Yours
That tells the dead to sleep no more
With just the sound chains will break
There is freedom In Your name
There is freedom In Your name

Every breath I'm breathing
Will be filled with praise
Just for one name
Always only Jesus
Let my heart cry holy
And my hands be raised
Just for one name
Always only Jesus

Fill the earth flood the sky
Let all creation magnify
The righteous will sing as evil shakes
There is power In Your name
There is power In Your name

Every breath I'm breathing
Will be filled with praise
Just for one name
Always only Jesus
Let my heart cry holy
And my hands be raised
Just for one name
Always only Jesus

Sing the name
That hushed the sea
Oh sing the name
That hell won't speak
Jesus
Hallelujah
Oh sing the name
That took on sin
Oh sing the name
That finished it
Jesus
Hallelujah
(REPEAT)

Every breath I'm breathing
Will be filled with praise
Just for one name
Always only Jesus
Let my heart cry holy
And my hands be raised
Just for one name
Always only Jesus

Just for one name
Always only Jesus

Let our anthem grow loud
There is one great love Jesus

Verse 3
Jesus the name that charms our fears
That bids our sorrows cease
'Tis music in the sinner's ears
'Tis life and health and peace

Verse 4
He breaks the pow'r of canceled sin
He sets the pris'ner free
His blood can make the foulest clean
His blood availed for me

Chorus 2
So come on and sing out
Let our anthem grow loud
There is one great love
There is one great love Jesus (Jesus)

Prayer of St. Francis - Sequence Song

Make me a channel of your peace.
Where there is hatred, let me bring your love
Where there is injury, your pardon Lord
And where there's doubt, true faith in you

Make me a channel of your peace.
Where there's despair in life,
Let me bring hope.
Where there is darkness, only light.
And where there's sadness, ever joy.

O, Master, grant that I may never seek
So much to be consoled, as to console:
To be understood, as to understand
To be loved, as to love, with all my soul.

Make me a channel of your peace.
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned
In giving of ourselves that we receive,
And in dying that we're born to eternal life.
Amen.

Holy Spirit - Offertory

There's nothing worth more
That will ever come close
Nothing can compare
You're our living hope
Your Presence Lord

I've tasted and seen
Of the sweetest of Loves
Where my heart becomes free
And my shame is undone
In Your Presence Lord

Holy Spirit You are welcome here
Come flood this place and fill the atmosphere
Your Glory God is what our hearts long for
To be overcome by Your Presence Lord

Let us become more aware of Your Presence
Let us experience the Glory of Your Goodness
